

JUDGE G. L. BELL,
LEADING JURIST,
DIES SUDDENLY

End Comes Unexpectedly
After He Had Been Confined to His Home for Week With Asthma.

LAST RITES SET FOR WEDNESDAY

Judge Bell Served for Many Years as Assistant United States District Attorney.

Judge George Lester Bell, of the civil division of Fulton county superior court, one of the state's foremost jurists, died at his residence, 26
Peachtree way, shortly after 7
o'clock Monday night after an illness of a week. Although he had been confined to his home for a week,
Judge Bell's death came suddenly after an acute attack of asthma from which he had suffered since childhood.

Judge Bell was the first man appointed to the judgeship of the civil division of the superior court after it was created by an act of the state legislature in 1900. He had held that position since without a contest in any election.

Born at Cumming.
He was born March 10, 1857, at Cumming, the son of Hiram P. Bell and Virginia Lester Bell. His father was a native of Jackson county, Georgia, and his mother was born at Lawrenceville.

Hiram P. Bell was one of the leading citizens of the state and during the war was a member of the Confederate congress and an officer in the Confederate army. He was one of the first United States senators from Georgia after reconstruction days.

Judge Bell received his early education at Cumming and later entered Emory college where he was graduated. Later he began the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1877.

He began his practice in Cumming.
He remained there until 1893, when he accepted the position of assistant United States district attorney of the northern Georgia district. He was given the appointment during the administration of President Grover Cleveland. He moved to Gainesville
after his appointment and lived there

Americus Throng Searches
Swamp With Flash-
lights for Child.

Americus, Ga., February 8.—(Special.)—A score of persons searched
through the swampy lands bordering on Muckalee creek here last night
seeking Billie McDowell, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDowell, the little fellow finally being found asleep in a pasture a mile south of Americus.

The child was missed about 6 o'clock
Sunday evening and after it was definitely decided he was lost, an appeal
was sent to various churches here,
asking members of the congregations
to assist in the search. A large number of flashlights were furnished by a hardware concern here to those who assisted the searches.

It was learned the child had been
with several other boys near the creek,
having followed them there, where they were engaged in flying a kite.
The child was not one of the party
and when these boys returned to their homes they failed to see that little Billie also emerged safely from the creek swamp.

Acting upon information furnished
by these boys, the father penetrated
through a wire fence, calling frequently, and after some time located little Billie.

The child may develop pneumonia
as a result of exposure, physicians say, but unless this occurs, he will soon be all right again.

NEGRO CONFESSES
TO BRUTAL ASSAULT

Six-Foot Barbed Wire
Fence Was Erected
About Court to Prevent Lynching of Accused.

Georgetown, Del., February 8.—
Guarded by a mob of 5,000 persons by three battalions of troops, who threw up breastworks of sandbags,
interpersed with machine guns, a negro tried here Monday was sentenced to hang for an assault on a 12-year-old girl.

The national guardsmen had repulsed an attack from the mob with tear gas bombs, but as the afternoon
wore on, the mob returned to the courthouse, increased in numbers, and still belligerent. Ten machine guns were set up with a barbed-wire enclosure surrounding the entire area
around the Sussex county courthouse,
and the trial of Harry Butler, the defendant, went on without interruption.

There was no demonstration in the courtroom as Butler was found guilty
and sentenced to hang February 23.
The crowd outside was not immediately made aware of the end of the trial.

Corroborates Confession.
Butler took the stand in the afternoon and told of his crime in detail.
He corroborated the confession which was used as evidence against him.

The spectators applauded as Prosecutor Clarence Southernland summed up with the assertion that "the jury
can do but one thing, and that is to return a verdict of guilty without qualifications."

Meanwhile, the mob outside was howling its abuse at the militiamen
and threatening to obtain arms to combat them. The blood lust surged up again as soon as the tear gas had faded away, and the crowd returned,
greatly augmented. Appeals for order by officers of the guard continued to be in vain.

Only one man was reported to have been injured, and he merely sprained his ankle.

Two thousands tear bombs were on hand as the trial began in the morning. All around the courthouse was the six-foot, barbed-wire fence, the troops and the machine guns, one of which was mounted high on the courthouse tower.

Visitors, witnesses and merely curious persons had poured into Georgetown from the countryside, and, unable to find lodging even in the hotels,
many persons slept through the night in automobiles.

The girl victim of the negro was still in a hospital, unable to come to court. Her mother wept as she told of finding her daughter unconscious in the woods near Bridgeville. The girl had been cruelly beaten and abused. The evidence against Butler was conclusive and the jury was out
only seven minutes.

Nancy Hart's
Grave Located
In Kentucky

Last Resting Place of Geo-rgan of Tory Fame Near Henderson, Ky.

Elberton, Ga., February 8.—(Special.)—Through the research of Mrs.
Z. W. Copeland, of Elberton, located the grave of Nancy Hart, a revolutionary heroine and for whom Hartwell and Hart county are named, appears to be authentically established
as being near Henderson, Ky.

Mrs. Copeland, who has devoted much attention to the history of Nancy Hart, is in receipt of a letter from Annie McL. Dennis Hart, of Henderson, Ky., who says she is a great-great-granddaughter of the Georgia heroine. The letter in part says:

"Nancy Hart is buried in the old Hart
burial grounds a few miles out from Henderson, Ky. Miss Sugg, Nancy
Hart's great-granddaughter, is living and is 98 years old."

Nancy Hart, according to history,
captured six Tories during the Revolutionary war, when they came to her home and ordered a meal prepared. She cooked the meal and as they ate, she grabbed a shotgun and ordered them to "hands up." Hart is the only county in Georgia named for a woman. The old Hart homestead remained in Elberton. It is planned to have a moving picture
made around the history of Nancy Hart, using the Hart home-
place as the geographical setting.

CAPITAL NEEDED
FOR DEVELOPMENT

Visitors Will Be Taken on Trip to Vast Fine Clay
Deposits in Middle Geo-gia.

Georgia can attain the same high rank in the manufacture of the finest clay products as the state has reached in the textile industry, and the future of the ceramics industry in Georgia is one which will bring great prosperity if properly utilized, according to prominent speakers of the first day's session of the twenty-eighth annual convention of the American Ceramic society held at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel Monday.

No section of the world has as many potential resources for manufacture of the best clay products of all kinds, including fine pottery, tiles,
brick, chinaware and other ceramic
products, according to the speakers,
among whom were Dr. Charles H.
Herly, president of the Synthetic and Organic Chemical Manufacturers' association; Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech; Frank West, president of the Ceramic Society of England; Albert V. Bleining, ceramicist of East Liverpool, Ohio; Dr.
E. Ward Tilton, Jr., president of the American Ceramic society; Mayor
Walter A. Sims, of Atlanta, and W.
T. Anderson, editor of The Macon
Telegraph.

Speeches at the afternoon session
and the illustrated lecture on the subject, "Glass, One of Man's Blessings," by Dr. A. Silverman, head of the chemistry department of the University of Pittsburgh, delivered Monday night at the Biltmore, were outstanding features of the first day's program of the meeting, which is attended by more than 400 prominent ceramic experts from all parts of the United States and Canada, and by many manufacturers and business men interested in the development of the industry.

Dr. Silverman, who is chairman of the glass division of the society, illustrated his lecture Monday night with lantern slide views of various processes used in making glass and also by exhibiting specimens of various kinds of glass.

Discussing the recent progress in glass uses, Dr. Silverman said he believes it is possible to light all rooms
in a house from a central point, light
rays being carried to different rooms
by glass tubes. He outlined also the recent discovery in the laboratories of the General Electric company through which transparently fused quartz can be manufactured which will not perish.

PONZI INDICTED
WITH FRIENDS
IN LAND SALES

Grand Jury at Jacksonville Brings 4 Charges Against Former Massachusetts Financier.

LOT-SELLING PLAN
VIOLATION OF LAW

Holdings Said To Be Only 100 Acres of "Desolate, Lonely" Land, 11.3
Miles From Lake City.

Jacksonville, Fla., February 8.—
(AP)—Charles Ponzi, of Massachusetts, together with three associates
in the Chardon Land Syndicate, was indicted late today by a Florida
grand jury on four counts, alleging violations of "declaration of trust"
laws.

The case against the Ponzi association was developed under the direction of State's Attorney Charles M.
Durrance by H. G. Mitchell, special representative of the National Better Business bureau; Morgan Griswold, postoffice inspector, detailed to the Ponzi case, and officials of the state
chamber of commerce. The investigation is said to have been under way
for six weeks.

Ponzi became internationally known
through his dealings in international repurchase contracts in Boston in 1920.
Used Assumed Name.

Ponzi came to Florida and Jacksonville—his headquarters city—October
last, using an assumed name of Charles Borelli until discovered.

He has declared at numerous times
since that his purpose in coming to Florida and entering the land selling activities was in an effort to recoup
his "lost fortune" and to thereby pay his New England creditors. He estimated shortly after his arrival here
that he still owed approximately $2,000,000.

Ponzi's scheme in the syndicate was
to sell certificates of indebtedness at $10 each, promising to triple the investment in 60 days by redeeming the certificates for three times their face
value in money, "if funds were available," or to give the holder of each
a deed to three lots in the Columbia county sub-division.

Few Improvements Made.
According to information compiled by the National Better Business bureau men and offered as evidence by the state's attorney, the Columbia county
sub-division is situated 11.3 miles
from Lake City, on the Tusculum road,
a narrow and unimproved sandy highway. On a visit to the Rosa Maria, named by Ponzi after his wife,
the investigators said they found 100 acres of land surveyed and street signs erected, with some 25 by 50 foot lots staked off. Outside of this, no improvement had been made,
they charged.

Further investigation showed that the land had been sold to Calcedonia Alviti for $16 an acre, who in turn deeded the property to the Chardon Land Syndicate, a copartnership between Ponzi and Alviti. Ponzi then sold lots in Columbia county for $10
apiece.

Ponzi in a recent statement to the public represented that he had 1,000 acres of land in Columbia county, but the investigation of records at Lake City revealed that Ponzi's only holdings were 100 acres of land described as "desolate and lonely."

PONZI LEAVES TAMPA
FOR JACKSONVILLE.
Tampa, Fla., February 8.—(AP)—
Charles Ponzi, indicted today in Jacksonville for alleged fraudulent land dealing, left here tonight for Jacksonville on an Atlantic Coast Line
train, one of his intimate friends said.
Ponzi arrived here about a week ago and created a sensation when he offered a hundred acres of land for $10 apiece. The management informed him that all available space
had been taken. Later, he appeared on the fair grounds and attempted to sell lots in Columbia county for $10 apiece. He also announced that he would obtain signatures to his application for a pardon from persons to whom he sold the lots.

Ponzi has dropped out of the line-
light here, although he continued to entertain a few newly found friends at a restaurant in Ybor City. It was here at his Tampa headquarters that it was announced tonight he had departed for Jacksonville.

REPEAL OF LAW PERMITTING
PUBLICATION OF INCOME TAX
PAYMENTS GIVEN APPROVALSYSTEM OF SPIES
IN ARMY AIR CORPS,
MITCHELL CHARGES

Drastic Order of Secretary of War Davis Directed at Major General
Patrick Primarily.

PROPAGANDA PROBE
ORDERED BY DAVIS

Officers Charged With Using Service Stationery To Place Pressure Upon Congressmen.

Washington, February 8.—(AP)—An espionage system is being maintained
in the army air service, William Mitchell, former assistant air chief,
charged tonight, declaring the investigation by Secretary of War Davis into air service activities in Washington
was primarily aimed at Major General Mason M. Patrick, head of the army air service.

An anonymous communication said
to have been sent out to obtain congressional support for the air corps
bill, and which the war department
is investigating, was said by Mitchell
to have been in part a summary of General Patrick's memorandum being prepared for congress and was sent out by a civilian reserve officer. He was told, he added, that a clerk, "presumably acting as a spy," sent a copy of General Patrick's memorandum to Secretary Davis.

The action of Mr. Davis, he charged,
was carried out at the behest "of the war department clique," and was but another example of the attempt of the department to intimidate those holding different air views and to keep accurate information from the public.

Mitchell said the war department
proceeding was "aimed at any change in existing conditions at all." General Patrick, he said, was "the only member of the old regime to see the light
and come out and tell the truth about it."

The alleged espionage system, Mitchell maintained, is a continuation of that invoked during the war. Any man is "disloyal," he said, "who does not agree with what the clique in the war department wants him to say."

Washington, February 8.—(AP)— Administration determination to enforce loyalty and discipline throughout the army has resulted in an order by Secretary Dwight F. Davis for a rigid investigation of air service activities in Washington.

The war secretary acted after documentary evidence had reached him,
indicating the existence of an organized propaganda to obtain air service legislation not in harmony with the air policy of the Coolidge administration.

The purpose of the investigation,
which in charge of Major General Eli A. Helmick, inspector general of the army, is to what connection air service personnel may have had with the circulation of an anonymous communication, urging that pressure be brought on congress for the enactment of an air corps bill. In the inquiry,
General Helmick is being assisted by Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service, and Brigadier General James E. Fechet, assistant aviation chief.

The communication under scrutiny indicates that it was intended for air officers of the regular forces, the national guard and organized reserves
all over the country, and calls for
"education work" with members of the public.

"Delighted With Life" Again,
Mrs. Stillman Cables Friend

New York, February 8.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman, bound for Europe and a trial reconciliation
aboard the Olympic, are "delighted with life" together again, according to a radio message from Mrs. Stillman received by a New York friend today
and reported to The New York American.

The message, partly in a code said
to have been arranged before the couple sailed, was interpreted to mean
there had been no slip in their plan
to span the gap between them made by their divorce case. It read in part:

"Everything O. K. with us. Pretty hot on the firing line. How is your sector? Mouth shut tight. Delighted with life."

Another phrase in code was translated into "We are sincerely and honestly searching each other's hearts."
The "Everything O. K. with us" was interpreted to mean that Mr. and Mrs. Stillman immersed themselves in the studies of psychology and psychoanalysis, through which his wife hopes
they may reach a common understanding.

The "hot on the firing line" was understood as a reference to the attempts to interview them since their presence aboard the ship became known. It was also reported that Mr. Stillman, before their departure, had communicated by cable with their daughter, Anne, and her husband, Henry P. Davison. The Davisons, now in Calcutta, informed Mr.
Stillman they would return to Paris
and are expected to arrive there soon
after the arrival of the reunited couple.

Meanwhile, reports of the ways in which both the banker and his heretofore estranged wife had sought to clear the ground for an understanding and reunion continued to accumulate. One of them reported Mrs.
Stillman as saying to her husband
when they were in her stateroom
shortly before the Olympic sailed:

"James A., during the latter years
of our marriage I thought you were snobbish, unforgiving and prosaic. So I went out to flip my fan at the world and show that I was not a slave to the perfume of a woman's personality. You resented it, and I don't blame you."

"Beaten the staggering burdens of your money bags, I believe, now, you are a poet at heart."

SENATE DECLINES
TO OPEN RETURNS
FOR PUBLIC VIEW

Georgia Senators Divide,
Harris Voting for Publicity and George
Against Inspection.

VOTE WAS 49 TO 32
UPON FINAL COUNT

Party Lines Split Asunder as Showdown Comes Upon Amendment of Senator Norris.

Washington, February 8.—(AP)—Repeal of the law allowing publication of the amounts of income tax payments
was approved tonight by the senate.

The action of the house in putting
this provision in the tax reduction bill was accepted by acclamation after
the senate had rejected, 49 to 32,
the Norris amendment to open all income tax returns to public inspection.

The senate went into its first night
meeting of the session before reaching a vote on the publicity provision, which was regarded as one of the most controversial points in the bill.

Determined to get a final vote on the measure before the end of the week, both republicans and democratic leaders are prepared to continue the day and night sessions.

Wednesday has been set as the deadline for passage of the bill by the senate, if tax reduction is to be assured by March 15, when first income installments are due.

The bill, as it now stands, provides that tax returns shall be open to investigation by special congressional committees, and also provides for the appointment of a joint congressional committee of ten to investigate and keep in touch with the administration of the internal revenue bureau at all times.

The latter committee would have

High's Radio Broadcasting Station To Open Wednesday

An important new radio broadcasting station will be added Wednesday night to the list now operating in the south when WDBE, new radio station of the J. M. High company, will take the air with its inaugural concert.

W. H. Brittain, president of the High company, will dedicate the new station to the entertainment of the radio public of Atlanta and the southeast, in a short talk as the concert opens at 8 o'clock Wednesday night. The voice of the president of the great store, according to radio experts, not only will sweep the entire Atlantic seaboard, but also will penetrate far to the west, carrying the story of Atlanta's enterprise over a far-flung area of the nation.

The program will continue until 8 o'clock and will include in its list of artists Miss Dorothy Stansland, contralto; Miss Ethel Telford, pianist and soprano; "Bud" Meeker, pianist; the New High Four Male quartet; the Georgetown orchestra; Jack Leffler, pianist, and Robert Earle, singer of popular songs.

Two Concerts Weekly.

Following the inaugural concert the new High broadcasting station WDBE will give regular concerts twice weekly, from 7 to 8 o'clock on Tuesday and Friday nights.

A. K. Dearing, manager of the radio department at High's, will be announcer and director of programs, taking charge of the microphone as soon as Mr. Brittain has concluded his short dedication talk.

In addition to Mr. Dearing, officials in charge of the station will be W. E. Robbins, Jr., technical engineer; John Clothworthy, assistant announcer; and Paul H. Jones, station director.

The broadcasting station is located in the radio department on the fourth floor of the High building, at Whitehall and Hunter streets. The studio is a commodious and delightful room, containing every modern device for perfection of broadcasting. It is decorated in blue and gold, and in addition to the perfect arrangements for the comfort of the artists, ample seating space has been provided for spectators, who may see the artists and the equipment in operation through a large glass panel.

WDBE will have 100 watts power and will operate on a wave length of 270 meters. The antenna is 100 feet long and is suspended from 50-foot towers upon the top of the High building.

In speaking of the operation of the new radio station, Mr. Brittain said Monday that it would be the firm's policy to give all listeners within range of WDBE's powerful voice the highest class of entertainment, presented largely by local artists.

"We feel that there is room in Atlanta for an additional station," Mr. Brittain said, "and our hours of broadcasting will not interfere with those of any other station in the local field."

"We intend doing all in our power to give our listeners entertainment of the highest standard and with pleasing variety. All these details will be in the hands of Mr. Dearing and his associates."

Inauguration of the new WDBE station will form a fitting climax to the company's Monday, to the "Follow the Swallow" sale, with its selections of the very latest in fashion and highest quality of goods, which is scheduled to begin Thursday at High's.

J. P. ALLEN TO HEAD NEW CHEST COMMITTEE

Appointment of J. P. Allen as chairman of the publicity and education committee of the Atlanta Community Chest was announced Monday by

J. P. ALLEN.

President Hugh M. Willett, and Mr. Allen has called the first meeting of his committee for 4 o'clock this afternoon at the chamber of commerce building.

On the committee Mr. Allen has asked the following to serve: J. L. McLendon, member of city council; Francis Clarke, managing editor of The Constitution; Hunter S. Bell, city editor of The Journal; William M. Baskerville, managing editor of The Georgian; Armand May, Marion M. Jackson, Rev. High Moore, Jerome Jones, Emmett Quinn, Mrs. R. K. Rambo, president of the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs; Robert B. Strickland, Mrs. George Howson, president of the Atlanta P. T. A. council, and Lumbard Kay of The Journal.

"It is our hope," Mr. Allen said, "that we may arrive at the most constructive methods possible to carry the message to the people. This process must continue throughout the whole year and must be participated in not only by the chest organization, but by the staff and board members of every agency, and by everyone interested in humanitarian enterprises in Atlanta."

WASHINGTON GIRL ASKED TO IDENTIFY AMNESIA VICTIM

Belief that the youth who has been held at police headquarters since Saturday night, apparently suffering from amnesia, may be a resident of Washington, D. C., was expressed late Monday night by detectives.

WHO IS HE?

Henry Hughes, of 191 South Pryor street, identified the stranger as a youth he had seen on several occasions at dances, cabarets and clubs in Washington. The youth usually accompanied Miss Pauline Orr, also of Washington, according to Hughes.

Miss Orr is said to reside on C street near Twelfth street, Hughes said.

The visitor at headquarters to bring back the stranger's memory by recalling scenes and names failed. Authorities are making efforts to communicate with Miss Orr, hoping that she may be able to aid in identifying the victim.

BISHOP REESE OPPOSES VOLSTEAD ACT CHANGE

Savannah, Ga., February 8.—(AP)—The Rt. Rev. F. F. Reese, bishop of Georgia, when asked this morning for an expression of his opinion on the statement last week by the Rev. James E. Pringle, of the Church Temperance society of the Protestant Episcopal church, that the society now favors a modification of the Volstead act, said that he agreed with Bishop Manning, New York, that undue importance had been attached to the statement.

Bishop Reese opposes any modification of the Volstead law at this time.

Georgia Profits By Florida Boom, States Chambers

The backlash of the unprecedented development in Florida is daily becoming more apparent in Georgia, particularly in the southern portion of the state, according to Walter Chambers, former Atlanta newspaperman and now director of advertising for Frank Bryson, of Haines City, Fla.

Mr. Chambers arrived last Saturday by aeroplane, bringing with him orders for printing amounting to thousands of dollars, which were brought to Atlanta because of the congestion in Florida printing shops. He is returning today with the first aeroplane load of freight ever sent from here to Florida, it is believed.

Tonight in Tampa Mr. Chambers will be host to the 14 men accompanying the first Ford aeroplanes which are to be used in a daily freight and passenger service between Tampa and Miami until June, when the service will be augmented to Atlanta and points north. The Florida Airways corporation, owners of the Ford planes, has been given contracts for the Atlanta-Miami aerial mail service, Mr. Chambers said.

"Atlanta now has the finest landing field for aeroplanes in the entire south," Mr. Chambers said.

Mr. Chambers is traveling back to Florida in an aeroplane piloted by A. B. McMullen, former Atlanta and one of the most expert fliers in the United States. He is director of aviation for Frank Bryson, who is developing the Florida Ridge section.

NO DATE YET SET TO SETTLE FIGHT IN CITY HOSPITAL

Councilman Frank H. Reynolds, chairman of the hospital and charities committee of city council, said Tuesday that he had not yet called a special meeting of the committee to consider the method of naming the executive committee of the white division of Grady hospital.

Last Tuesday night a petition, signed by 50 doctors attached to the staff of Grady, was submitted to the committee, making a number of complaints against administration of affairs of the institution by the executive committee of the Atlanta Graduate School of Physicians and Surgeons. This committee is composed of Dr. Frank Eskridge, Dr. Garnett Quillian, Dr. T. C. Davidson and Dr. H. R. Donaldson.

At a special session of the council committee, held last Friday night, it was announced that the only point of difference between the two factions is the manner of election of the governing body of the hospital. Agreement on all other points has been reached.

BOARD TO DECIDE ON SCHOOL NEEDS AT MEETING TODAY

Final decision by the board of education on the amount it will require to meet needs of city schools is expected to be made at a meeting of the board today.

It has been announced that the board would insist on $5,000,000 for schools and the board probably will make known its position on the proposed $8,000,000 bond issue.

Dr. R. M. Eubanks, chairman, will preside.

FORCES ASSEMBLE FOR CREDIT DRIVE

Forces are being gathered to raise Atlanta's quota for credit protection work. H. S. Collinsworth, chairman of the executive committee, has lined up his committees to include H. D. Carter, H. E. Choate, J. S. Kennedy, P. M. Millians, F. B. Ramey and others prominent in local credit circles.

At the Ansley hotel tonight the regular monthly meeting of the Atlanta Association of Credit Men will be given over to discussion of this important undertaking. Eugene R. Black will be the leading speaker.

In 1924 credit frauds amounted to $300,000,000, and the situation had reached a point where drastic action had to be taken, credit leaders here assert. The National Association of Credit Men, which has fought credit fraud for the last eight years, determined to bring this scandal to an end. With this object in view, its members launched a campaign in the northeast section of the United States for a million dollar fund with which to increase their investigation and prosecution staff.

Business men, responded without hesitation, and at the end of the campaign it was found that the million dollars had been over-subscribed. This emphatic response has had a definite effect on "gentlemen crooks" who live by abusing credit systems. Reports from all over the country show that these swindlers are turning their efforts to other fields, where they will not have to contend with a well organized and highly specialized force of investigators.

There are some things no human judgment can decide, and the precise causes of the Shenandoah's collapse are among them.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowels and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonard tried it in 1900 and with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent and then decided it should be sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside application. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Jacobs Drug Store today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and will do the same for you. (Indic.)

$50 Reward

$50.00 will be paid if R. V. Turner's Quick Relief Salve fails to give relief in case of croup, head colds, catarrh, sore throat, headache, earache, eczema, itch, burns, rashes, bruises, etc. This salve is one of the most powerful, penetrating, germ-killing, pain-relieving and healing salves known to science. Removes corns in a few hours without pain. Also removes seed warts.

Quickness of Eyes Tested
In Masked Player Contest

Quickness of the eyes of contestants in The Constitution's Masked Players Contest will be tested this week at Loew's Grand Theater where the third group of screen stars wearing masks are being shown in special films. There are five players in the group this week and the producers have used much ingenuity in presenting them in such a way as to baffle many experts in guessing their identity.

One pretty blonde star almost gives the contestants "a dare" this week to guess her name. She wears a mask, but only half at a time. The mask flutters with lightning-like rapidity and the audience is given a view of her face for a fraction of a second. Then the game is to guess who she is. Winners of the $600 in prizes will be the ones who guess the names of the stars and provide them with the best sets of slogans.

This is one of the exciting details of this week's group in the Masked Players' Contest, being conducted by The Constitution in cooperation with the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. See if your eye and wit are quicker than the camera—for it may pay you a big reward!

JOHNSON QUALIFIES FOR COUNTY PRIMARY

Edwin F. Johnson, member of the Fulton county commission from the country district, is the first candidate to qualify in the county primary of March 24. Monday he sent his check for $250 to Claude C. Mason, of the county democratic executive committee. His term expires December 31, 1926, and he is a candidate to succeed himself. At the present time he is chairman of the public works committee of the commission.

OPERA GUARANTEE LIST IS OPENED

First invitations to join the 1926 list of grand opera guarantors were mailed on Monday to those who were on the favored list in 1925 by Colonel William Lawson Peel, chairman of the Music Festival association.

The guarantors of Atlanta's annual season of Metropolitan opera each year have the first choice of seats, the sale of season tickets for guarantors opening in advance of the sale to the general public. With the steady increase in popularity of these annual operatic gala events and the consequent heavier and heavier demand for the choicest seats in the auditorium, the material value in being included in the guarantor list is enhanced.

Guarantors may underwrite any portion of the $125,000 guarantee.

How to stop BOILS!

There's only one way to stop boils. Stop the cause of boils! That's common sense—isn't it? All right. Boils thrive because the blood gets so weak in healthy, red cells that it can't throw off the impurities that get into the body. There's not enough rich, red blood to purify the system.

Now—S. S. S. builds back the blood to fighting strength. S. S. S. builds red-blood-cells—builds them by the millions! Boils dry up! S. S. S. is the thing. Impurities that cause boils and other skin eruptions can't stand up against the rich, healthy, red blood that S. S. S. builds. That's all there is to it.

Stop boils with S. S. S. It's the way. Get it at any drugist. The larger bottle is more economical.

She Could Never Have Done It With Piles!

Bless the American girl who has glorified all the sports! She makes a pretty picture in the water, and is a plucky swimmer, too. Piles are unthinkable for active women. If you have them, you ought to know this simple thing to do!

At any hour of moment that you have the least distress or discomfort from piles, use a simple Pyramid pile suppository—and go happily on your way. The worst hemorrhoids, even bleeding and badly protruding piles respond at once to the soothing suppository applied in perfect privacy. But bear the name in mind: Pyramid is the one every druggist has, usually the only one he will sell his patrons. Pyramid is marvelous. Why suffer another single half-hour with painful piles?

Sixty cents the box, the world around. But for proof, a free box Pyramid suppositories will be sent to those who write Pyramid Drug Co., 200 Pyramid Ridge, Marshall, Mich.

which is needed to bring the Metropolitan Opera company here for the week beginning Monday, April 19, from $200 up. Inasmuch as the 15 seasons of the grand opera while Atlanta has enjoyed, instead of showing a loss over the entire period, have resulted in a total profit of more than $50,000, it is regarded as extremely unlikely that the guarantors will be called on to meet any deficit at all this year.

Directors of the Music Festival association Monday state that while invitations to become guarantors had been mailed only to those whose names appear on the 1925 rolls, this was merely because it was the only available list at the disposal of the directors.

All who desire to be listed among this select group of Atlanta and southern music lovers who make possible the bringing of the annual galaxy of opera stars to the south may do so by writing the Music Festival association, Cable Piano Company building, 84 North Broad street, Atlanta and cards will be sent them.

CERAMICS EXPERTS WELCOMED TO CITY

mit any of the light rays of the sun to pass through but will let the ultra-violet rays pass which are of so much value in the treatment and cure of several kinds of diseases.

Value of New Glass. "This new glass, which is made of pure quartz, is manufactured in an electric furnace and it has been found that its use in hospitals has been of great benefit to children suffering from malnutrition, scurvy, rickets and other diseases," Dr. Silverman said. "Ordinary window panes admit light and heat but they exclude the invisible actinic rays of sunlight so essential to life and health. At present the cost of manufacturing the glass is very high but it is not unreasonable to presume that it will replace ordinary window glass in the homes of the land."

Dr. Herly, who is a Georgian and formerly was a member of the faculty of the University of Georgia, pointed out Georgia's advantages over other sections of the country as a clay producing state.

"Georgia clays are found near the surface and are easily mined. There is an abundance of good water for washing, the nearby ports of Brunswick and Savannah affording ample facilities for storage of fuel oils while labor is had in plentiful quantities and is not of the type given to crippling industries with strikes," he said. "The great advantage Georgia now for a great era of development in this industry is capital, in the opinion of Dr. Herly."

Dr. Herly said the establishment of a school of ceramics at Georgia Tech was a great step forward in the industrial progress of the state.

Dr. Brittain in welcoming the visitors declared that Georgia has a belt of clay 25 miles wide and extending all the way across the state from Augusta to Columbus, which will provide a source of supply for almost unlimited numbers of factories manufacturing clay products.

Mayor Sims said the meeting of the American Ceramic society in Atlanta is one of the most significant things in connection with the future that Georgia has seen in decades.

Anderson welcomed the visitors to Georgia as the representative of Governor Clifford Walker, who could not attend the meeting, and also as the representative of citizens of Macon who will entertain visitors Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Divisional Meetings Today. The session today will consist entirely of divisional meetings. There are seven divisions of the society and all will meet simultaneously at the Biltmore hotel. The seven divisions are art, enamels, glass, heavy clay products, terra cotta, refractories and white wares.

Women visitors to the convention of the society are being entertained by a committee of Atlanta women headed by Mrs. Norman Sharp, president of the Atlanta Woman's club, general chairman of entertainment. A reception and tea was held Monday afternoon by a committee composed of Mrs. M. L. Brittain, chairman, and other prominent Atlanta women.

Thursday the visitors will go to Macon, where they will be entertained by Macon citizens, and Friday they will visit plants located in Wilkinson county at McIntyre and Gordon. They also will visit various clay fields located in the vicinity of Macon.

Several floors of the Biltmore hotel are covered with attractive displays of various clay products made in the leading factories of the country. There are 28 complete exhibits in all.

Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, first vice president of the Atlanta Woman's club and chairman for the entertainments given at the ceramic convention at the club, has arranged a brilliant reception for the guests of the convention tonight beginning with a program in the auditorium of the club at 8:30 o'clock, as follows:

Direct readings by Mrs. Robert Blackburn.

Aesthetic dancing by pupils of the Gertrude Keller Lambert School of Dancing. Readings by Mrs. M. Smearing, a pupil of the Morton school, "The White Silhouette," "Requiem for a Will," etc.

These numbers were written by Mr. Lewis J. Morton especially for Mrs. Smearing.

Church Program. An interesting program has been arranged for the St. Paul A. M. E. church tonight with Dr. W. B. Lawrence presiding. Grant chapel won the attendance banner which was presented at the Monday night meeting at the Allen Temple A. M. E. church.

Mr. Jeffords was busy Monday receiving old friends and in greeting new friends in his new position.

REPEAL PUBLICITY OF INCOME TAXES

power to inspect all returns and those opposing full publicity regarded this as a compromise on the present law allowing publication of the amounts of tax payments.

The present law was condemned by both advocates and opponents of the full publicity amendment. Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, who had drafted an amendment proposing continuation of the present system, did not present it for a vote.

Two years ago the senate, by a vote of 48 to 27, adopted the amendment it defeated tonight.

Those voting for the publicity provision were: Republicans: Borah, Capper, Coughlin, Frazier, Gooding, Howell, Johnson, Jones, McMillan, Neely, Reel, Lettice, Lenroot, McMaster, McNary, Norbeck, Norris and Nye.—15.

Democrats: Ashurst, Blease, Bratton, Dill, Ferris, Harris, Heflin, Kendrick, King, McKellar, Neely, Reed of Missouri, Sheppard, Smith, Trammell and Walsh.—16.

Farmer-labor: Shipstead.—1.

Those voting against the amendment were:

Republicans: Bingham, Butler, Cawson, Dale, Deussen, Edge, Ernest, Fernald, Fess, Gillette, Goff, Hale, Harrell, Keyes, McKinley, McLean, Metcalf, Moses, Oddie, Pepper, Reed of Pennsylvania, Robinson of Indiana, Sackett, Schall, Shorridge, Smoot, Stanfield, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson, Weller, Williams and Willis.—33.

DR. JAMES L. LOWVORN DIES AT BOWDON HOME

Bowdon, Ga., February 8.—(Special.)—Dr. James L. Lowvorn, 63, one of the most prominent citizens of West Georgia, died today following an illness of about six months.

He was president of the Bowdon Railroad company, president of the Bowdon Oil & Fertilizer company, president of the board of trustees of Bowdon Normal college and ex-officio trustee of the University of Georgia. He was a member of the Baptist church and was a Shriner.

He is survived by his widow, three daughters and one granddaughter. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Bowdon Baptist church.

SIMPLE HOME MIXTURE DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Cincinnati Barber Tells How Any One Can Prepare It in 5 Minutes.

Any man or woman can easily look twenty years younger by simply darkening their gray, faded, or streaky hair. This is now easy to accomplish with a recipe given by a well-known Cincinnati barber.

Simply take a half-pint of water, add one ounce of bay rum, 1-4 ounce of glycerine and a small box of Barbo Compound. Shake and it is ready to use. These ingredients can be bought at drug stores at trifling cost.

Applied to the hair twice weekly this delightful mixture quickly gives the desired shade. It is easy to use, is not sticky or greasy, will not color the scalp and does not rub off.—(Adv.)

Regimental Parade Plans Completed by 122d Outfit

Completion of the annual federal inspection of the 122d infantry, national guard, will be marked by a regimental parade in the auditorium armory, according to plans announced Monday night by Colonel Charles H. Cox, regimental commander.

The public will be permitted to occupy seats in the auditorium, the main floor being used as a drill field for the parade.

Inspection of units of Atlanta's own regiment will begin on the night of February 15 and continue through the night of February 22, high officials of the regular army being assigned to inspect Atlanta's crack new national guard regiment.

Colonel Cox stated at an officers' meeting Monday night just preceding the regular drill period that the regiment was "ready for inspectors" and that he felt certain the organization would measure up to its usual high standard.

Members of the regiment were enthusiastic over the announcement of the regimental parade, as it will be the first time all Atlanta outfits have appeared together and in public since early last fall.

The exact hour and details of the parade feature will be announced later.

Dividends Regularly for 40 Years

Constant war on waste
Products of first quality
Uninterrupted dividends
Stability of earnings
Small profits per pound on large volume

The life history of Swift & Company's operations is thus briefly summarized.

The chemical laboratory and the constant search for improved methods have reduced waste to a minimum. They have also enabled us to improve greatly the quality of your meat.

Thrift and conservative policies have made it possible to pay dividends without interruption for 40 years, although our profits have averaged only a fraction of a cent per pound of product.

Swift & Company thrift has benefited others beside Swift shareholders. A portion of the gains resulting from thrift is passed along to the producers of live stock and to the consumers of meat. Competition sees to that.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them
now with Creomulsion, an emulsified
creosote that is pleasant to take.
Creomulsion is a new medical discovery
with two-fold action; it soothes
and heals the inflamed membranes
and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities
as one of the greatest healing
agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing
elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation
and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory
in the treatment of persistent
coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma,
bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.

WASHINGTON DUNN DIES AT RESIDENCE OF HIS SON HERE

Washington, D. C., February 8.—(P)—
A prominent citizen of Fitzgerald, died here Monday night at the residence of his son, O. L. Dunn, 232 E. Fifth street.
Mr. Dunn served four years in the Confederate army. In later years
he wrote a history of the war entitled "Confederate Memories."

Mr. Dunn came to Atlanta early in December to visit his son. Death came after a week's illness in a position to his widow, he is survived by two sons, O. L. Dunn and Robert L.
Dunn, of Grayburg, Texas; two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Kersey, of Milledgeville, Fla., and Mrs. A. F. Cardwell, of Hialeah, Fla.

The body will be taken to Sumner this morning for funeral services
and interment. Greenberg & Bond

Alderman W. B. Hartsfield, Alderman
P. L. Moon and Councilmen J. A.
White and A. J. Orme to serve on a new committee to consider the "relief
petition" of the Georgia Railway and Power company in accordance with a councilmanic resolution.

The petition of the company was filed early in December, 1923, and suggested seven ways of aiding the company. Two of those plans now are before the state public service commission for action. Other proposals will be considered at later dates.
Elimination of jitneys resulted from recommendations of the old commit-

GERMAN MINISTER TO ANSWER TODAY

Zeitung, "because we do not possess
armaments, but later we will avenge Mussolini's insults."

The more moderate section of the press merely emphasizes the principle that Germany's concern in southern Tyrol is neither military nor political, but merely cultural.

Meanwhile, increased anti-Italian agitation is apparent throughout the country. The Singakademie, the leading musical association of the country, has cancelled an Italian tour. Indignation is especially bitter in Munich, where the population is enforcing a boycott against Italian fruit
to the advantage of fruit from Spain.
A placard in the Munich railroad station says:

Easy to Gain With Yeast and Iron

New Combination of Yeast with Vegetable Iron Builds Up Weight
in Three Weeks

This new combination of
yeast and iron
renews the action of slug-
gish blood cells,
drives out dangerous body
poisons, increases energy
and endurance
and supplies the system with the vitamins that build up weight.

For years
yeast has been known as a rich
vitamine food
but not until we perfected "iron-
ized yeast"—
which comes in
a concentrated tablet form, was
it possible to
take yeast and
iron in the right
proportions to build up weight.

"Vegetable Iron" when combined
with yeast is quite easy to digest, therefore better for the system. And "yeast" when ironized, becomes just twice as beneficial as ordinary fresh or cake yeast.

Ironized Yeast tablets are composed of concentrated food elements, therefore, they are pleasant to take and free from drug-like effects. It makes no difference how old you are—or how young you are—how long you have been under weight—or how much under weight you are, "ironized yeast" tablets are positively guaranteed to pick you right up, and add
from five to twenty pounds of good firm flesh in three weeks' time. If they fail get your money back.

Sold by druggists, at $1.00 for a large 60-tablet package, or sent direct from laboratory on receipt of price.

THE GUMPS—IN THE NAME OF THE LAW

MONTE CARLO

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

INSTALLMENT L.
A WEAKENING INFLUENCE.

Hargrave's face softened as he looked at his friend. "You'd make one believe in the hereafter if any one could," he said gently.

"I don't know much about it myself," Gorse replied. "I simply believe in following the best of what is in you, and hoping that it may lead us somewhere."

They finished their drive in an understanding silence. When they reached the villa, they found Marston, more pink and white than ever, attired in spotless flannels with a flower in his buttonhole, waiting for a cocktail.

"Come to make a last appeal?" Hargrave asked as he sank into a chair.

Marston shook his head. "I've given you up, Hargrave," he declared. "You're too tough. I looked in to know about our plans for the ball tonight."

"Dinner at the Hotel de Paris," Hargrave announced, "at nine o'clock. We want to get over to our box about half-past-ten, and then let ourselves go."

"I'm for it," Marston assented. "I shall have to quit in a day or two, so I want to make the most of my time."

"It's rather a pity," Hargrave observed lightly as he leaned back and sipped his cocktail, "that you did not choose this morning to present some new and pleasing argument on behalf of your scoundrel of a friend. I have been with Gorse here, and he is the most weakening influence I know for a strong man."

"Trentino's no more my friend than he is yours," Marston replied, "but I don't see any sense in bleeding a human being to death, especially when it costs a quarter of a million to do it. You've given him the worst time of his life as it is."

"Yet one doesn't let vermin escape from the trap when one's caught them," Hargrave mused.

"They tell me you've annexed his lady friend as well," Marston observed, a little diffidently.

"That was a paltry affair," Hargrave confessed, "of which I really am rather ashamed. I gave her dinner the night she broke with him at the Hotel de Paris. I haven't seen her since, nor am I likely to any more; but on the other hand, my friend," Hargrave went on, considering the matter of a second cocktail and deciding in the affirmative, "what about Trentino's employing a clumsy gang of assassins to get rid of me?"

"You haven't any proof of that," Marston argued.

"I've all the proof a sensible person needs," Hargrave insisted. "This fellow Hobson was his advance agent and in his confidence. What about the other night at the Sporting club when I had that bullet within an inch of my head? Hobson never had the least idea of committing suicide. It was a put up job and a pretty clever one, too."

Marston looked troubled.

"Trentino had dismissed the fellow before that," he protested. "They had had a row that evening. One reason why Hobson had gone up the pole."

"Sheer bluff," Hargrave retorted. "I'm not a sensationalist, you know, Johnnie, and I saw the fellow when he was playing at being the demented ass deliberately swing away from the pistol himself and turn it towards me."

"Then it's a damned rotten business," Marston confessed. "I don't know why you've kept it so quiet."

"What's the use of saying anything about it," Hargrave pointed out.

"The authorities have dealt with him. He pleaded poverty and went off with a viatique. The chief of police came round to see me—heard rumors, I suppose, but I didn't worry about it. It may be an Argentine's way of trying to get a man, or rather his executors, to sell shares, but it doesn't quite commend itself to the disciples of Throgmorton street."

"It seems incredible," Marston admitted. "Anyhow, you know what the man is. He'd kill you if he could, of course—probably nine men out of ten would in his place."

"We're all uncivilized brutes, Johnny," Hargrave mused—"the best of us as well as the worst of us. I rather hate a man who employs agents, though. Prejudice, perhaps. Tell me, supposing I were to relent at the last moment, by what time must I sell him the shares?"

"By tomorrow morning, to be on the safe side," Marston replied. "We should have to cable to Buenos Aires. Some of them are wanted here."

Hargrave lit a cigarette, and rested his hand for a moment on Gorse's shoulder.

"You're a terrible fellow, Phillip," he said. "One of your secrets is that you never preach. You just act. Still, I haven't made up my mind yet."

Violet drove up the avenue in a little voiture, with a box on the seat in front of her. She waved her hand, and came swiftly up the steps towards them, leaving the grave-faced Andrews, who had assisted her to alight, to pay the valet and collect her parcel.

"I have the most wonderful frock," she announced with enthusiasm. "I really believe when you see it you won't want to dance with any one else all the evening."

"I can quite believe it," Hargrave answered. "But dare I risk making so many enemies?"

"The third dance," Marston insisted solemnly, "is mine."

"And the fourth mine," Gorse added.

"Agreed. But where have you been?" she asked the latter. "We've had no tennis for days."

"My mother hasn't been quite so well," Gorse explained, "and I've had a friend I had to go and see over at Bordighera. I'm coming to the dance, though. One of my last efforts, alas. It isn't a very good time of the year for me to be out long."

Violet sighed.

"Don't talk about going back," she begged. "Fancy this coming to an end!"

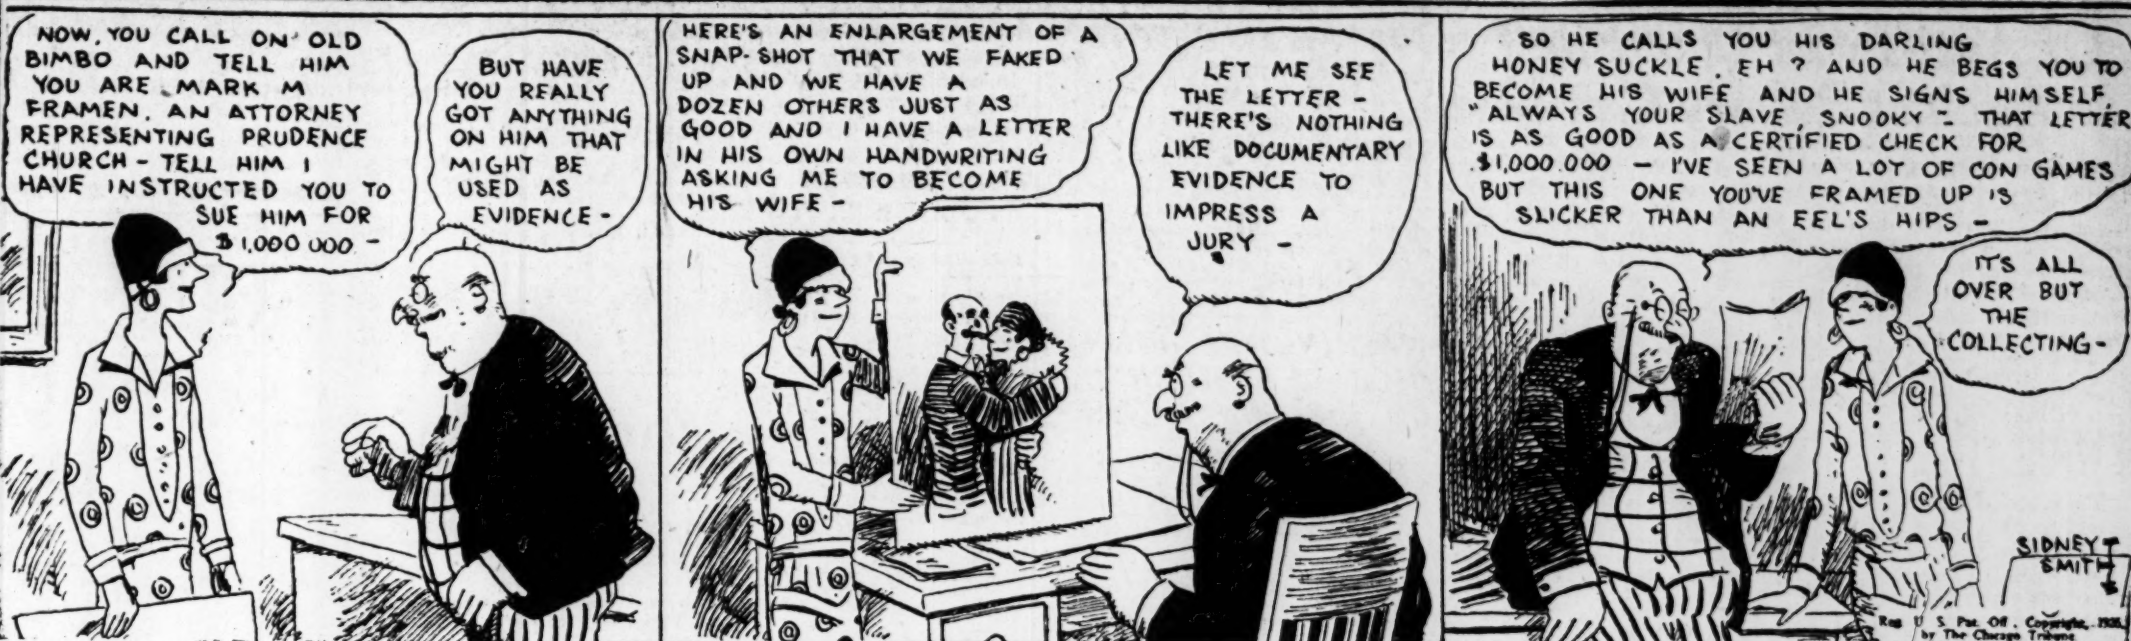

"Stop and lunch, you fellows," Hargrave invited.

Both had engagements. They presently took their leave. Violet passed her arm through Hargrave's as they turned the corner of the drive.

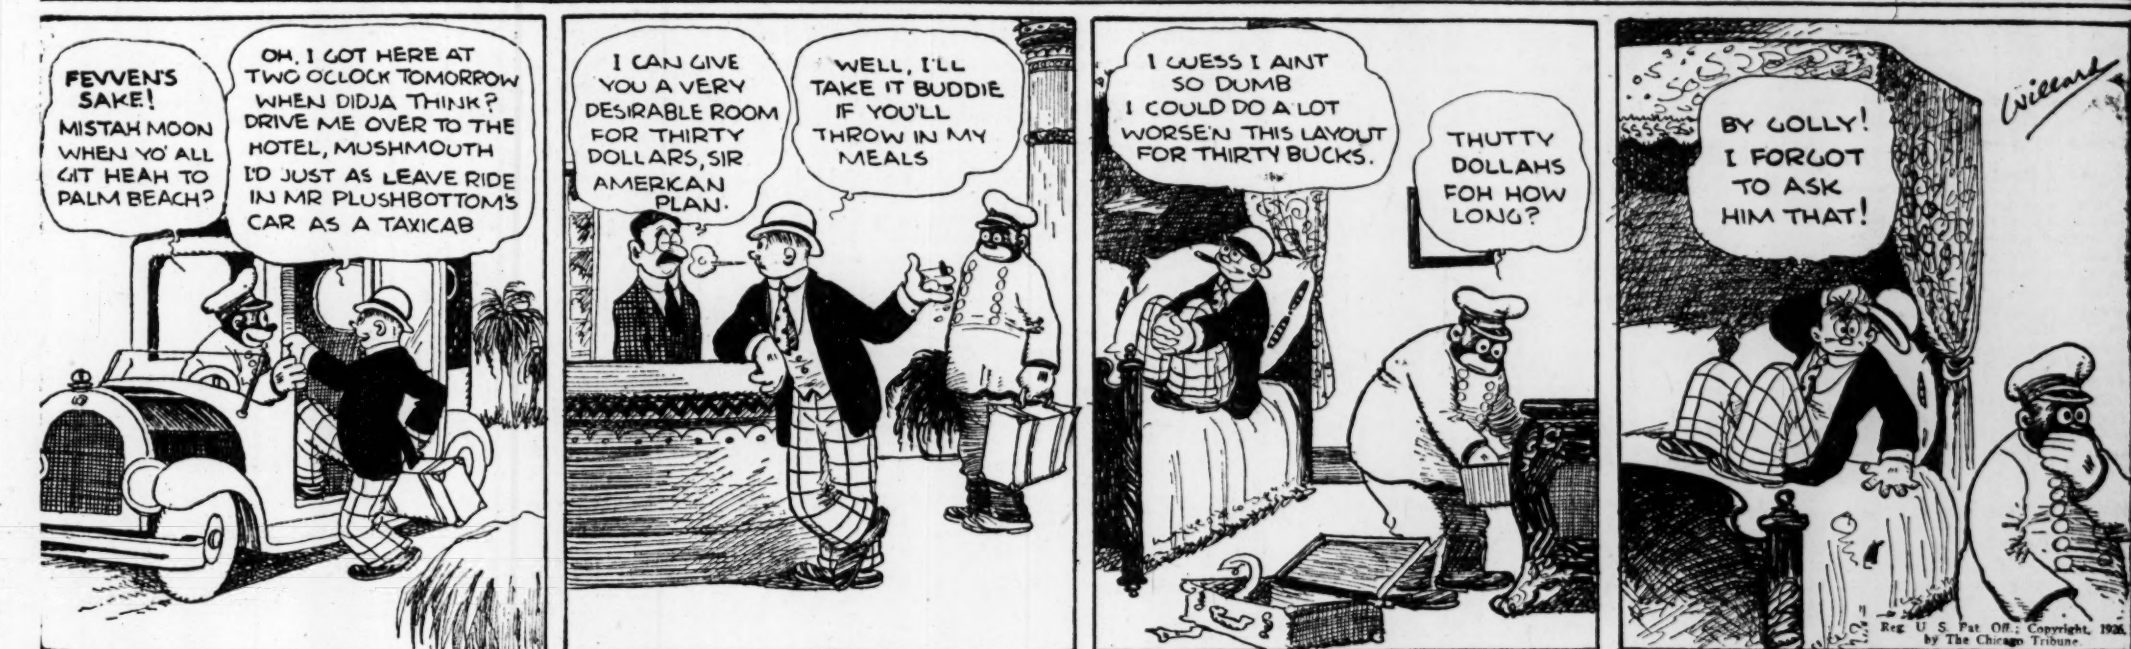

"Let's spend tonight pretending," she begged.

Visitors at the Ceramic Convention To Be Honored

Visitors of national importance, those ladies accompanying their husbands as delegates to the Ceramic convention in Atlanta this week, will be entertained at a series of social affairs throughout Tuesday, with a bridge party at the Atlanta Woman's club this morning, and Mrs. Norman Sharp, club president as official hostess, and Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, as chairman of the bridge party, which begins the social program planned for Tuesday. Luncheon follows with an automobile drive, arranged by the chairman, Mrs. Victor Krieger, concluding the pleasure and a brilliant reception is arranged in their honor for Tuesday evening, after which an artistic program has been arranged featuring leading artists on the program, and a buffet supper will be served afterward.

One hundred visiting guests will be received at the reception, the official committee including Mrs. Norman Sharp, Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, Mayor and Mrs. Walter Sims, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Paxson, Dr. Willis Sutton, Dr. A. V. Henry, Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Mrs. John R. Hornady, Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mrs. Joel Hunter, Mrs. W. D. Williamson, Mrs. Eva Corrigan, Mrs. George Ripley.

Buffet Suppers

Two buffet suppers following rehearsals of prominent marriages will feature the evening social calendar of Tuesday will include Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillon's party for Miss Mary Elizabeth Snow and Elen Fletcher Tilly, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jenkins' buffet supper in compliment to Miss Laura Jenkins and John R. Krieger. Miss Mary Bardwell, a bride-elect of this week, will be honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. James Floyd at her home in Ansley Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodford's buffet supper will also have this charming bride-elect as central figure.

Bride of Week Gives Lovely Tea

Miss Laura Jenkins, one of the most attractive of the week's quota of brides, entertained at a lovely trolley-ten Monday afternoon at her home on Lee street. Yellow roses and white narcissi formed the effective decorations of the tea table.

Receiving with the hostess were her mother, Mrs. W. C. Jenkins, and her aunt, Mrs. Capers Andrews. Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Hugh Carmichael, who was assisted in serving by Miss Jessie White, Miss Nellie Sheffield and Mrs. J. J. Rushin.

Mrs. Brown Gives Luncheon at Club

Honoring Miss Mary Bardwell, lovely bride of this week, Mrs. Dowdell Brown was hostess at luncheon Monday at the Druid Hills Golf club. Red roses and white narcissi formed the effective centerpiece of the luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Miss Ann Stokely, Miss Margaret Middleton, Miss Katherine Haverly, Miss Corday Rice, Miss Hermine Walker, Mrs. Cater Woodford, Mrs. R. N. R. Bardwell and Mrs. Brown.

Miss Richardson Will Give Valentine Dance

"Broadlands," the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson on Pace's Ferry road will be the scene of a lovely valentine fancy dress and masquerade dance at which Miss Louise Richardson will be hostess Saturday afternoon from 5:30 to 9 o'clock.

The guests will include a group of schoolmates of the young hostess.

Prayer Union To Meet Wednesday

The Prayer Union of the China Inland mission will meet Wednesday afternoon, February 10, at 3 o'clock, 650 West Peachtree street.

Bride-Elect Given Shower

Miss Pearl Fincher, a bride-elect of February, was honored last week by a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Bill Fincher and Mrs. Charles Fincher. Two amusing contests were enjoyed by the guests, prize winners being Miss Frances Fugh, Mrs. Claude Turner and Mrs. W. L. Barrer. The many lovely gifts for the bride-elect were brought in by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fincher.

EXCRUCIATING PAINS—CAUSED BY HEADACHES

"Every member of our family uses Black-Draught," says Mrs. L. D. Mayhew, of Stanley, N. C. "I could not have raised my children without it. It has been used by us for 12 or 15 years."

"For a long time I suffered with bad sick headaches. I would have an excruciating pain across my temples and in my forehead and nothing would give me relief. I would just have to take to my bed and have to wear the pain out, which left me exhausted. This went on for a long time. I tried different medicines, but with no apparent results, as the headaches would return and the intense suffering had to be gone through with again."

"Finally, one day I read about Theford's Black-Draught. I thought I might try it, as it sounded simple. I began to take it as a tea. When ever I felt myself getting constipated, I would get a box and take several doses. I found that this prevented the severe headaches which had been troubling me. Now I take Black-Draught before the headaches come on and I find it prevents them altogether."

"I have given Black-Draught to my children for constipation and upset stomach. Often they get upset from careless eating, grow bilious and have a bad breath. I take down the Black-Draught box at once and give a dose to them."

"I am glad to recommend Theford's Black-Draught as an excellent bowel and liver medicine. I give it to my children and I take it myself for inactive liver."

Most headaches are due to self-poisoning, and when this self-poisoning is caused by an inactive liver, Black-Draught will be found of great value in carrying away the poisons. Sold everywhere.

Mrs. Edward Inman To Be Hostess At Luncheon Feb. 16

One of the loveliest affairs to be given just preceding the lenten season will be the seated luncheon at which Mrs. Edward H. Inman will be hostess on Tuesday, February 16, at 1 o'clock, at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Gathering a large group of Mrs. Inman's friends this will be an elaborate luncheon, and covers will be placed for 80 guests.

Auxiliary Will Sponsor Pageant.

"Oh, Doctor," a pageant of the budget, will be presented in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, February 10, at 8 o'clock. The play is sponsored by the Woman's auxiliary with the purpose of education concerning the church budget. It was created in Montreal last summer, and has since become very popular among church organizations.

The cast includes: Doctor, W. W. Lyons; foreign missions, Mrs. W. M. Dunn; home missions, Miss Arline Tetter; Sunday school extension and publication, Mrs. George Hoyt; Bible societies, Mrs. O. H. Wesley; Christian Endeavor and ministerial relief, Miss Isabel Breitenbueher; the church, Mrs. D. R. Petzet; nurses, Mrs. Lawrence Willett; Mrs. Campbell Krenson, Mrs. S. L. Hicks; registrar, Mrs. W. F. Shallenberger; the ghost, Mrs. O. D. Bartlett; group of visitors, volunteers and young people of the church, Mrs. Carroll McLaughlin, leader.

Organ music and songs will be an attractive feature of the program. The public is invited. No offering will be taken.

Fort McPherson Set To Give Benefit Pageant.

The benefit bridge which is being given Saturday evening, February 13, in the Service club at Fort McPherson promises to be one of the most delightful entertainments of the winter season, as it will draw together the army and civilian social circles. The party is being sponsored by the club guild at Fort McPherson, of which Mrs. James Magee is president.

Hunter Addresses Local Clubwomen On World Finance

Joel Hunter, prominent business man of this city, was heard in a highly instructive and interesting lecture by the local women's club Monday afternoon at the regular meeting.

Mr. Hunter spoke on the changes in our financial and commercial life brought about by the transition which the United States has undergone in recent years from a borrowing to a lending nation.

The speaker stated that undoubtedly the results of the world war were to speed up and increase business in the United States. He said that practically all Americans were growing richer. He likened this nation to that of Rome, 1,800 years ago.

"If business is worked on the system of 'Am I my brother's keeper,' or as universal brotherhood, our nation will avoid mistakes made in ancient cities and countries referred to, and we will become even greater in the eyes of the world."

"I cannot but recall," continued the speaker, "what Shakespeare says in 'The Merchant of Venice' regarding borrowing and lending and I fear it is a dangerous thing to lend to a friend, if you would be friendly."

The Sunshine of Sunday.

In the beautiful sunshine of Sunday afternoon, a conspicuously charming and happy couple seen walking on Peachtree road were two of Atlanta's young people whose engagement had been announced in the morning's paper—Katherine Haverly and Russell Bellman.

Of course, Katherine had on the regular, very own, charming and delectable of orchids and valley lilies. And, of course, the future Mr. and Mrs. Bellman—taken collectively—were the cynosure of thousands of kindly eyes and the center of much pleasurable comment.

Lovers, as you know, usually are but, in this particular case, EXCEPTED. While Katherine's fiancé is more or less a stranger, Atlanta being only his adopted home, yet Katherine is ours by every right of inheritance.

What a wealth of family setting has this Atlanta met! She belongs, in a grouping of delightful sisters and brothers and is the youngest daughter of J. J. Haverly, and the late Mrs. Haverly, a much beloved Atlanta woman before her passing a few years ago.

Driving Club Ball.

"Turn backward, turn backward, oh, time in your flight and make me a child again just for tonight!" And such must have been the thought of the one whose inspiration it was to inaugurate an old-fashioned Valentine box like unto grammar school boxes for the Driving club Valentine dinner-dance next Friday night!

You haven't forgotten how you would so graciously and so stylishly slip your Valentine, with the tiniest little initials hidden in some inconspicuous corner, into the big red box installed in your classroom for the day when you were a child, have you? Or how, at the close of the day, with your little girl friends, take stock to see which had been the most popular girl in the room? How much these little scraps of paper meant to you.

And these grown-ups, St. Valentine's at the Driving club, are going to do just that all over again! A beguiling trick and a fascinating one!

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By IRENE CASTLE Copyrighted 1926 by P. O. Beauty Features

Take Care What Kind of soap touches your face The kind beauty experts use themselves—how to use

TO endanger a good complexion with an unproved soap is a folly. The only kind of soap to use on your face is a true complexion soap. Some soaps that are excellent in many ways are too harsh for the skin.

Laundry, scrub, with any soap you wish. But if guarding a good complexion is your aim, care. Use a soap made to protect it.

Thus Palmolive is so widely urged as a soap made solely for one purpose: to protect the complexion. A soap made by experts in beauty to be used freely and lavishly on the skin.

Judge H. Hill's Bible class of St. Mark's Methodist church led all other individual classes in the city in attendance Sunday with 254 present, the Georgia Sunday School association announced Monday.

The Agnes of the Baptist Tabernacle was a close second, with an attendance of 235. The latter reported the largest school attendance of 1,375.

Monday afternoon a large tea was given for them on the mezzanine floor of the Baltimore. The guests were received by Mrs. Norman Sharp and Mrs. W. H. E. Brittain, who were in charge of the entertainment committee.

The ladies will be honor guests at a dancing party Tuesday evening at the Woman's club. Wednesday night they will attend the banquet at the Baltimore going later to the dance in the ballroom of the Baltimore.

The GILDED ROSE

CHAPTER LXI. Long Island Canals. Suddenly a queer, electric tremor went through her slender body. It was almost as though a radio message had been wirelessly....

The sea no longer drew her, nor did her yearning eyes search the sunset, as though seeking to solve the eternal mystery of life. Those eyes of hers turned intuitively inwardly to the undulating cliff land, where the figure of a man was silhouetted....

It was Rupert Briscoe, she knew. Her pace quickened. Every nerve in her slim body was steered to reach him, to tell him....

She was about to break into a "hallo" when suddenly he disappeared from sight. The earth apparently swallowed him up completely! "What queer phenomenon was all the older in that Marietta was on top of a high knoll at the moment of the disappearance, and the surrounding landscape was like an open book before her straining eyes....

She hastened to the very spot of his disappearance. Her eyes were like excellent, and these beaming bushes and prickly clumps of gorse formed the very spot where "he" had disappeared. She would surely find him if she searched....

The prickles, she thrust forward into the very center of the undergrowth, moving cautiously. A queer story had once reached her, via Van Vorst, of some caves here and there, and her ancestors had been adventurers and marauders. Was Van Rupert Briscoe mixed up in some "funny business"? Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, maybe? A double character? A dual role? Nothing could surprise her any more....

bullish operations, however, were not in evidence. The Texas Gulf Sulphur was run up to 137-1/2, closing just below the top. Standard Gas and Electric closed 35-5/8, and the Standard Oil of California, Famous Players, and the American Combustion Engineering, the American Hide and Leather issues, United Fruit Distributing and Westinghouse Air Brake all closed 1 to 2-1/2 points higher.

Commodity markets also were reactionary. When futures broke sharply, the Baking Company stock broke in the Baking Company stocks. May options closing over 5 cents a bushel, fell to $1.69 1/2. Cotton futures fell to 10 1/2, lower, because of the selling inspired by favorable weather reports. Coffee was unchanged to 17 points net lower and may suggest further slight declines.

Big Brute

A Colossus among Giants

General Motors Contribution to American Industry

Born of the combined engineering genius of 1,000 of the world's foremost engineers and fostered by the gigantic General Motors Corporation, with operations covering some 144 countries, resources running in the hundreds of millions of dollars and sales aggregating One Billion Dollars yearly, comes Big Brute—a truck such as the industrial world has never seen before.

Brute in name, power, in size. Brute in terrific stamina and tremendous endurance. Big Brute is built to stand impregnable against the most brutal requirements of man and industry.

Beautiful in its brutal ugliness, Big Brute looks what it is . . . a Colossus among the Giants of modern transportation. With the operating ease of a lithe passenger vehicle, a Fisher-Built Cab to furnish driver's comfort unknown before, and mechanical improvements years beyond the ordinary conceptions of today, it stands to change the industrial motor transportation of the world.

A Truck Without "Bugs"

From its vast engineering experience, covering the production of over 4,849,485 passenger and commercial cars, during the last 25 years, General Motors Corporation has eliminated, in Big Brute, the vital weaknesses, the engineering mistakes, the structural flaws previously common among heavy duty trucks. Big Brute is a truck without "bugs." More than 71% of all motor vehicles made and sold by General Motors are now in active service.

The motor trucks of the entire world were studied by General Motors engineers in developing Big Brute. Service records, covering the past ten years—actually the experimental development years in truck transportation—were gathered from all possible sources, throughout the world. The strength and weaknesses of all trucks became an open book to General Motors experts.

It was learned why some trucks rendered but limited service. Why others surpassed them. Why some operated under nominal upkeep, while others were economic failures. Some of those factors related to engineering, others to material and workmanship; some to operating simplicity, others to minor mistakes in design or manufacture. One by one, these factors were met, analyzed and weighed. The mistakes of these ten experimental years were corrected. A new standard in heavy transportation thus was set.

Years from now another truck like Big Brute may be built. Today it cannot be fairly weighed against any other known. There is no other that's comparable . . . In presenting it, General Motors Corporation feels that it is making an important outstanding contribution to American industry.

Sold Under GMAC Plan

Big Brute, like all other products of the General Motors Corporation, is offered under the liberal General Motors Acceptance Corporation Plan of deferred payments—the lowest cost under which any motor car or truck can be financed on time payments.

Fast, Furious and Wild Is "Artists and Models"

Manager Lewis Haase has been titillating our curiosity for a week, by carefully refraining from mentioning the names of any of the cast of "Artists and Models," in the advance advertising or reading notices. Monday night, when the show opened at the Atlanta theater—to remain with us to the balance of a week at the Atlanta theater—was the reason for his reticence was disclosed.

Not, let us hasten to say, because there were any performers to apologize for. No, indeed. But because those Hoffman girls are with the show, and when they get out on that stage and warm up and really cut loose, it doesn't matter what the rest of the show brings forth.

Hoffmans Make Show.
Wild? Boy, those Hoffman girls have taken the original idea of a wild woman and sprinkled so much pepper on top of the recipe that they leave their audiences in such a state at the end of the performance that it is impossible to retain a coherent idea of the show, at all.

There will be no attempt in this column to tell how many times these girls appear—how they are costumed or otherwise—how many there are of them or how they look. Just take note that they come hurrying then.

Numbers which remain in memory as particularly good are "Fashion Models of Tomorrow," "An Artist's Studio," the ballet "Spring," "Forceful Statuettes,"

And, going further, it doesn't matter about what is said here about the show, anyway. Because they sold all the standing room the law allows at the Atlanta Monday night and the two thousand people who begged in vain to purchase more of it. The two thousand planned on the spot to buy tickets for later in the week. They, and the two thousand who saw it, are busy looking for places to buy tickets. So what difference does a mere review make? The theater will be sold out for the balance of the week, regardless of what is said here.
